JANUARY NEWS 2024

I lift up my eyes to the mountains—where does my help come from? My help comes from the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth. He will not let your foot slip—he who watches over you will not slumber; indeed, he who watches over Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

The LORD watches over you—the LORD is your shade at your right hand; the sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon by night. The LORD will keep you from all harm—he will watch over your life; the LORD will watch over your coming and going both now and forevermore.

- Psalm 121:1-8

Happy New Year to all from the WELCA Circles!

All women are invited to attend the WELCA meeting that best fits their schedule. Esther Circle meets the first Thursday of the month, 10:00 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall (next meeting Thursday, January 4). The Ruth Circle meets the second Monday of the month, 6:30 p.m. in the Conference Room (next meeting Monday, January 8).

In October, Esther ladies frosted 18 single layer cakes with sprinkles which were delivered to Help 4 Kids for families. They love these treats! Twenty-two women attended our combined fall WELCA meeting on November 4. A candle was lit in memory of Linda Baist. Our guest speaker was Pastor Gregory Van Dyke of St Peter's Lutheran Church in Pawley's Island. He spoke about suicide in America and gave a slide presentation. The results of our election of officers for a 2-year term are: Kathy Buckley, president; Dianne Siew, treasurer.

Two service projects followed the luncheon. A collection of items for Seniors were wrapped for Christmas. Rita Lewis directed that project. And a total of 315 Period Project packets were assembled and delivered for our local Project Chapter. In November, we were asked to assemble Period packets for the Beaufort area. Seven ladies put together 408 packets. Thank you, ladies, for stepping up!

Ruth Circle assembled 6 shoebox gifts for Operation Christmas Child. December's Ruth Circle meeting was a Christmas brunch at Shauna Shea's home. Undies and socks were collected and donated to Help 4 Kids. Esther Circle filled fifty bags for Seniors for Christmas which are delivered by Help 4 Kids. Each month the Circles requests a certain food item. October, granola/fruit bars; November, hot chocolate packets; and December, pudding cups.

All were donated to Help 4 Kids Backpack Buddies. Christmas cards were sent out to shut-ins and those who have not attended church in the past few months. We revealed our Silent Prayer Sister this month and enjoyed Christmas cookies and punch. Esther ladies pulled 4 older children's names from the Help 4 Kids angel tree and purchased gifts for them. Four Thrivent Action Teams were used by WELCA over the past three months. Thank you to those who made the Action Teams available and to anyone in the congregation that donates to the many service projects we do. Looking Ahead: Saturday April 13th, 2024 at 1:00 p.m. the Epiphany Conference will be held here at St. Philip.

Esther leader, Elsie Angus & Ruth leader, Shauna Shea

Many hands helped decorate the sanctuary for Christmas. Thanks to all who were able to help!

St. Philip youth, families, and friends visited a few church members on December 10 spreading some Christmas cheer!

Pictured are the carolers visiting the homes of Hank and Pat Moody, Beth Neubauer, and Steve & Laurie Bruccoliere (to name a few).

Afterwards, the carolers gathered at the Shea's home for food and fellowship!

Fellowship Committee - Inara Keelin

This is always a great opportunity for fellowship and conversation with your church family while enjoying juice, coffee, and a sweet treat.

Monday, January 8, we will hold our monthly Committee meeting. If you are interested in helping us plan for upcoming events, please come join us. We will meet in the Fellowship Hall at 10:30 a.m. Any questions, contact me (Inara) directly, 843-602-8770.

T-H-A-N-K Y-O-U!

Dear St. Philip Church Family,

Thank you so much for the love, prayers, and concern shown to us in the recent passing of my mother, Jeanette Fogle. Mom was a strong lady and she lived 98 years--many of them in very good health. We will miss her, but we are so thankful that she lived a good long life and brought much joy to our family and those around her.

In love, Linda & Dick Albert

St. Philip,

We thank you for your donation of 371 pounds of assorted food that you donated on November 17. We are extremely grateful for your generosity! With rising inflation and costs, keeping our pantry and hygiene items stocked is now much more challenging. Your donations help us to combat this challenge and allow us to continue to assist those in need. Thank you again for your support of Helping Hand of Myrtle Beach!

Church Office Notes from Linda Hendricks

First, thank you to the congregation for the monetary Christmas gift, and thanks to all who gave cards and gifts to me for Christmas. You are such a blessing. It is a joy to be your Parish Administrator!

End of the year statements for 2023 will be available mid-January. They will be placed on the information table by the front entrance of the church. If you would like your statement emailed to you or mailed to you, please let the Church Office know in advance. Otherwise, all statements will be waiting for you at the church.

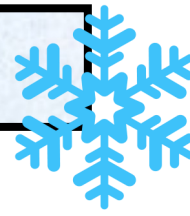

As always, please remember to fill out your name and date on the Attendance Insert that is in the weekly Sunday bulletins. Unless you have a prayer request or updated contact information, there is no need to fill in anything other than your name and the date. No personal information is given out - we report to the SC Synod annually how many have worshipped with us throughout the year, as well as other statistical info. This is a helpful tool for folks church shopping.

The 2023 annual reports are due by the end of January from all church/preschool staff, finance, Church Council, committee chairs, and ongoing ministries at St. Philip. Please make sure to email your information covering the year 2023 to the Church Office no later than January 29.

Did you get to see the Moravian Star hanging inside the front entrance of the church? AJ Perez makes them using the front covers of Christmas cards. AJ has asked that if you would like to bring your Christmas cards to the church rather than throwing them away, he can use them for making more of the stars. Feel free to bring your Christmas cards to the church and place them in the basket provided on the information table by the front entrance of the church.

MUSIC NOTES with John

What a beautiful celebration of Christmas we've had at St Philip! Many thanks to the Chancel Choir, Handbell Choir, the Festive Brass Quintet, and our many instrumentalists of many ages in the community who have so enriched our celebrations of Advent and Christmas. As I write this, I'm filled with excitement for the excellent music for brass and organ that we will offer to herald Christ's birth anew in our hearts. Special thanks to instrumental soloists across the season. We'll extend our celebration of Christmas with lots of joyful instrumental and vocal duets and solos, plus carols for everyone on December 31.

As we move into the new year, I'm energized to share new music. First up: Children's Choir! All kids and youth are invited to meet on Sundays following 10:30 worship beginning January 14. From 11:45 to 12:30 p.m., we'll be learning songs and singing together, exploring instruments, and maybe even ring a bell or two together! All young folks, elementary age and up, are invited.

Interested in learning about handbells? Come to Handbells 101. We'll meet on Wednesdays in the music room from 5:15 - 6:00 p.m. from January 10 through February 8.

We'll start at the very beginning, learning basic note and rhythm reading, how to mark your music and identify your part, how to hold and make music with handbells. Designed for all adults and middle school aged youth and up.

There's no expectation to ring in worship as part of joining in, just a low-pressure opportunity to learn the basics of ringing and explore if it could be a way that you express your faith and find community with St. Philip folks. Space is limited, so kindly please email me: StPhilipMusicMB@gmail.com to sign up. Hope to see you there!

Like to make music but don't drive at night? I'm looking to evaluate if St Philip might have sufficient interest in a singing choir that meets on a weekday, which would be designed particularly for those hesitant to drive after dark. If you would be interested in joining in singing through a daytime rehearsal, please reach out to me to express your interest. If we have a quorum, we'll work together to find a good time for folks.

January Acolyte Ministry News - John Iredell/Shaua Shea

During Advent, the Acolytes were very busy practicing for the Christmas services. This year, all Christmas Eve services featured a Gospel procession and the late service had torches and the Banner in procession.

In the New Year, Acolyte classes will begin and will include new children (age 8 and older) that are interested in becoming an Acolyte, as well as refresher classes for our current Acolyte leaders.

One new Acolyte, Angelina (Angie) Sebia, will undergo training leading to installation as another leader in our church. Angie has already served as an OJT (on the job training) Acolyte. Welcome, Angie!

Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year to everyone!

Lunch Bunch will gather for lunch on TUESDAY, January 16, beginning at 2:00 p.m. at Maggi D's, 385 Seaboard St., Myrtle Beach (behind and across the street from Coastal Grand Mall).

*Note the day and time change.

Please sign up on the sheet provided by the front entrance of the church. Reservations have been made for 26 people.

Remaining Lunch Bunch Schedule

- ⇒ February 20, Tuesday, 2:00 p.m. - Café Old Vienna, 1604 N. Kings Hwy., Myrtle Beach
- ⇒ March 18, 12:30 p.m. - Callie Baker's Firehouse Bar & Grill, 910 Lake Arrowhead Rd., Myrtle Beach
